

Daily Current Affairs Capsule

UPSC • NDA • Defence Exam Preparation

5. IMD issues 'yellow' alert for the national capital

The IMD on Saturday (May 2, 2026) issued a 'yellow' alert for the national capital for the next two days, warning of rain, thunderstorms and gusty winds. The cloudy skies and intermittent rain are expected to persist till May 6

Source: The Indian Express | Category: Weather

6. Chief Electoral Officer Archana Patnaik holds review meeting

Chief Electoral Officer Archana Patnaik holds review meeting with Election Commission officials ahead of counting day on May 4

Source: The Indian Express | Category: Elections

7. Resignation of Allahabad High Court judge Yashwant Varma

The resignation of Allahabad High Court judge Yashwant Varma last month, amid parliamentary proceedings to remove him over allegations that burnt wads of unaccounted cash were found at his Delhi residence in 2025, has brought into focus how the judiciary holds itself to account. Aaratrika Bhaumik reports on the opacity surrounding complaints against judges, the routine rejection of information requests, and the shrinking space for criticism

Source: The Indian Express | Category: Judiciary

8. Boat capsized during a storm on April 30, 2026

The boat, around 20 years old and operated by the State tourism department, capsized during a storm on April 30, 2026

Source: The Indian Express | Category: Disasters

9. Special counting tables for postal ballots

Special counting tables have been arranged for postal ballots, with each table handling up to 500 votes under the supervision of an assistant returning officer.

Source: The Indian Express | Category: Elections

10. CRPF deputy commandant visits area with large force

The CRPF deputy commandant visited the area with a large force and assured the demonstrators of ensuring their safety.

Source: The Indian Express | Category: Law and Order

$${index + 1}$. $${item.title}$

Exit polls favouring UDF leave the Opposition feeling bullish. LDF feels voters will stay the course as in the past Assembly elections, preferring “stability over volatility”. The BJP-led National Democratic Alliance (NDA) is hoping to shrink the UDF and LDF’s margins by positioning itself as a Central government-backed development alternative to the traditional fronts in Kerala.

Source: $${item.source}$ | Category: $${item.category}$

$${index + 1}$. $${item.title}$

Protests erupt in Falta over BJP’s allegations of malpractice and voter harassment, with a decision on repolls in the seat still pending

Source: $${item.source}$ | Category: $${item.category}$