

Daily Current Affairs Capsule

UPSC • NDA • Defence Exam Preparation

1. Maharashtra's voter list

According to official data released during the SIR exercise, Maharashtra has 9.78 crore registered voters, while enumeration forms relating to 2.07 crore voters remained uncollected during the process

Source: The Hindu | Category: National

2. Election Commission's letter

The letter also seeks an independent, court-monitored investigation into allegations of arbitrary, unauthorised changes made to voter registration software/forms

Source: The Hindu | Category: National

3. Police investigation

Senior Superintendent of Police (SSP), Kapurthula, Gaurav Toora said police have no information of any such crime.

Source: The Hindu | Category: National

4. EAM Jaishankar's statement

EAM Jaishankar told world leaders that a persistent threat to peace has been the scourge of terrorism.

Source: The Hindu | Category: National

5. RTI Act

Information on communal and caste clashes, inquiry reports on police firing, custodial deaths, details on handling of agitations by students and farmers; and all matters relating to National Security Act detentions, are now excluded from the ambit of the RTI Act

Source: The Hindu | Category: National

6. NDA alliance plans

Ruling NDA alliance plans to mobilise one lakh crowd for public meeting

Source: The Hindu | Category: National

7. Mamata Banerjee's statement

The responsibility for the deletion of 27 lakh names lies with Mamata Banerjee, not the

BJP or the Election Commission. Judicial officers took the decision following the Supreme Court's directions in a case filed by her, says Chief Minister Suvendu Adhikari

Source: ${item.source} | Category: ${item.category}

${index + 1}. ${item.title}

The election petition had accused the then DMK Ministers K.K.S.S.R. Ramachandran, Thangam Thennarasu and P. Moorthy of exerting pressure on the Returning Officer

Source: ${item.source} | Category: ${item.category}