

Daily Current Affairs Capsule

UPSC • NDA • Defence Exam Preparation

1. Congress leader Saikia was trailing by 4,967 votes in Sivasagar district's Nazira seat.

Congress leader Saikia was trailing by 4,967 votes in Sivasagar district's Nazira seat. BJP's Mayur Borgohain secured 11,607 votes after the second round, compared to Saikia's 6,640

Source: [\[source\]](#) | Category: [\[category\]](#)

2. Counting of votes for the high-stakes Assembly elections is under way, with the verdict set to decide whether the Mamata Banerjee-led TMC returns to power for a fourth consecutive term or the BJP scripts history by forming its first government in the State

Counting of votes for the high-stakes Assembly elections is under way, with the verdict set to decide whether the Mamata Banerjee-led TMC returns to power for a fourth consecutive term or the BJP scripts history by forming its first government in the State

Source: [\[source\]](#) | Category: [\[category\]](#)

3. The trend triggered concern among TMC supporters, prompting party leaders to exercise caution in making claims of a landslide victory

The trend triggered concern among TMC supporters, prompting party leaders to exercise caution in making claims of a landslide victory

Source: [\[source\]](#) | Category: [\[category\]](#)

4. TVK president Vijay leads in Tiruchi East and Perambur; Chief Minister M.K. Stalin is trailing in Kolathur as of 10.30 a.m.

TVK president Vijay leads in Tiruchi East and Perambur; Chief Minister M.K. Stalin is trailing in Kolathur as of 10.30 a.m.

Source: [\[source\]](#) | Category: [\[category\]](#)

5. After the first few rounds of counting, UDF was leading in 100 of the 140 Assembly seats, while CPI(M)-led ruling LDF was ahead in just in 40 constituencies. The BJP-led NDA was leading in only one seat

After the first few rounds of counting, UDF was leading in 100 of the 140 Assembly seats, while CPI(M)-led ruling LDF was ahead in just in 40 constituencies. The BJP-led NDA was leading in only one seat

Source: [\[source\]](#) | Category: [\[category\]](#)

6. Both alliances are gung-ho about bagging at least 64 seats, the simple majority mark in the 126-member Assembly

Both alliances are gung-ho about bagging at least 64 seats, the simple majority mark in the 126-member Assembly

Source: [\[source\]](#) | Category: [\[category\]](#)

7.

As soon as officials received information about the gap between the two slabs, they acted promptly to remove all vehicles and people from the spot, says Bhagalpur District Magistrate Nawal Kishor Choudhary

Source: ${item.source} | Category: ${item.category}

${index + 1}. ${item.title}

Congress candidate Umesh Meti leads by around 10,534 votes in the Bagalkot bypoll against BJP's Veeranna Charantimath; in Davangere South, BJP's Srinivas Dasakariyappa in lead by 3,925 votes against Samarth Mallikarjun of Congress.

Source: ${item.source} | Category: ${item.category}