

Daily Current Affairs Capsule

UPSC • NDA • Defence Exam Preparation

1. Left-affiliated student organisations demand Union Education Minister's resignation

Left-affiliated student organisations demand Union Education Minister's resignation

Source: [source] | Category: [category]

2. At a public hearing, protesting farmers raised several concerns, ranging from the loss of self-reliance to the loss of steady sources of income that would follow if the acquisition was carried out

At a public hearing, protesting farmers raised several concerns, ranging from the loss of self-reliance to the loss of steady sources of income that would follow if the acquisition was carried out

Source: [source] | Category: [category]

3. Both Houses have seen repeated adjournments as the demand for Union Education Minister Dharmendra Pradhan's resignation took centrestage

Both Houses have seen repeated adjournments as the demand for Union Education Minister Dharmendra Pradhan's resignation took centrestage

Source: [source] | Category: [category]

4. CJP's peaceful protest at Jantar Mantar will continue until Dharmendra Pradhan resigns, says CJP founder Abhijeet Dipke

CJP's peaceful protest at Jantar Mantar will continue until Dharmendra Pradhan resigns, says CJP founder Abhijeet Dipke

Source: [source] | Category: [category]

5. Announced by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on July 23, 2026, the initiative aims to expedite trials under the Public Examinations (Prevention of Unfair Means) Act, 2024, following widespread protests over alleged irregularities in the NEET-UG exam.

Announced by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on July 23, 2026, the initiative aims to expedite trials under the Public Examinations (Prevention of Unfair Means) Act, 2024, following widespread protests over alleged irregularities in the NEET-UG exam.

Source: [source] | Category: [category]

6. Opposition refused the government's offer of a debate on paper leaks, arguing that any discussion must be preceded by the resignation of Dharmendra Pradhan

Opposition refused the government's offer of a debate on paper leaks, arguing that any discussion must be preceded by the resignation of Dharmendra Pradhan

Source: [source] | Category: [category]

7. The new tariffs will come into effect as U.S. President Donald Trump's temporary worldwide tariff of 10% expires

The new tariffs will come into effect as U.S. President Donald Trump's temporary worldwide tariff of 10% expires

Source: ${item.source} | Category: ${item.category}

${index + 1}. ${item.title}

Writer Sarah Joseph condemns police action against protestors in Jantar Mantar; poet Anwar Ali says student movement offers hope amid concerns over 'communalism'

Source: ${item.source} | Category: ${item.category}