

Daily Current Affairs Capsule

UPSC • NDA • Defence Exam Preparation

1. India now has 45 World Heritage Sites according to the UNESCO website. The last addition or 'inscription' was in 2024, with the Maratha Military Landscapes located Maharashtra and Tamil Nadu.

India now has 45 World Heritage Sites according to the UNESCO website. The last addition or 'inscription' was in 2024, with the Maratha Military Landscapes located Maharashtra and Tamil Nadu.

Source: [\[Source\]](#) | Category: [\[Category\]](#)

2. Both Houses adjourned till 12 p.m. amid Opposition sloganeering on use of brute force on students

Both Houses adjourned till 12 p.m. amid Opposition sloganeering on use of brute force on students

Source: [\[Source\]](#) | Category: [\[Category\]](#)

3. CJI Surya Kant said that merely because a protest was underway, the police was not justified in using force

CJI Surya Kant said that merely because a protest was underway, the police was not justified in using force

Source: [\[Source\]](#) | Category: [\[Category\]](#)

4. None injured as mill was not operational at the time of the incident. The blaze reportedly originated from a copra drying unit operated with firewood

None injured as mill was not operational at the time of the incident. The blaze reportedly originated from a copra drying unit operated with firewood

Source: [\[Source\]](#) | Category: [\[Category\]](#)

5. Maala Parvathi, Ansiba Hassan, Usha Haseena, and Ponnamma Babu have urged Registrar of Co-operative Societies to seize books of accounts and financial documents that continue to be under the possession of the panel led by Shwetha Menon that had announced its resignation at general body meeting on June 21

Maala Parvathi, Ansiba Hassan, Usha Haseena, and Ponnamma Babu have urged Registrar of Co-operative Societies to seize books of accounts and financial documents that continue to be under the possession of the panel led by Shwetha Menon that had announced its resignation at general body meeting on June 21

Source: [\[Source\]](#) | Category: [\[Category\]](#)

6. For the first time since the enumeration phase began, the Greater Bengaluru Authority has disclosed that there have been at least 6.41 lakh 'logical discrepancies' or anomalies within its jurisdiction

For the first time since the enumeration phase began, the Greater Bengaluru Authority has disclosed that there have been at least 6.41 lakh 'logical discrepancies' or anomalies within its jurisdiction

Source: [\[Source\]](#) | Category: [\[Category\]](#)

7. [Title]

Finance department repeats advice about dropping uneconomical schemes and 'perhaps deferment of certain measures, including maintenance expenditure, which can be postponed'

Source: ${item.source} | Category: ${item.category}

${index + 1}. ${item.title}

Litigant claims the department had lifted the ban on registration of those properties much to the disadvantage of four temples in Karur district

Source: ${item.source} | Category: ${item.category}